Purpose of Inspection
The RHRA conducts compliance inspections as set out in section 77(1) of the Retirement Homes Act, 2010 (the "RHA").

NON-COMPLIANCE
1. The Licensee failed to comply with the RHA, S.O. 2010, c. 11, s. 62; Contents of plan. The Licensee failed to comply with the RHA, S.O. 2010, c. 11, s. 62; Reassessment and revision. The Licensee failed to comply with O. Reg. 166/11, s. 47; Development of plan of care. Specifically, the Licensee failed to comply with the following subsection(s): 62. (4) The licensee of a retirement home shall ensure that there is a written plan of care for each resident of the home that sets out, (b) the planned care services for the resident that the licensee will provide, including, (i) the details of the services, (ii) the goals that the services are intended to achieve, (iii) clear directions to the licensee's staff who provide direct care to the resident; 62. (12) The licensee shall ensure that the resident is reassessed and the plan of care reviewed and revised at least every six months and at any other time if, in the opinion of the licensee or the resident, (b) the resident's care needs change or the care services set out in the plan are no longer necessary; 47. (1) Subject to subsection (4), as soon as possible and not later than two days after a resident commences residency in a retirement home, the licensee of a retirement home shall develop an initial plan of care for the resident based on the initial assessment of the resident's immediate care needs conducted under section 43 that includes all of the information listed in subsection 62 (4) of the Act that is relevant to the resident's immediate care needs.
Inspection Finding

Plans of care for two residents did not include skin and wound care service which was part of a package of care services that the residents were entitled to receive under the resident's agreement with the licensee or goals and clear directions to staff. Two residents did not have initial plans of care created within the required time frame. Two resident's plans of care did not accurately reflect the number of recent falls they had had. The plans of care were not accurately updated with regard to falls.
Outcome The Licensee has advised it has taken corrective action to achieve compliance. RHRA to confirm compliance by inspection.

NOTICE

The Final Inspection Report is being provided to the Licensee, the Registrar of the Retirement Homes Regulatory Authority (the "RHRA") and the home's Residents' Council, if any.

Section 55 of the RHA requires that the Final Inspection Report be posted in the home in a conspicuous and easily accessible location. In addition, the Licensee must ensure that copies of every Final Inspection Report from the previous two (2) years are made available in the Home, in an easily accessible location.

The Registrar's copy of the Final Inspection Report, as it appears here, will be included on the RHRA Public Register, available online at http://rhra.ca/en/register/
