47. (1) Subject to subsection (4), as soon as possible and not later than two days after a resident commences residency in a retirement home, the licensee of a retirement home shall develop an initial plan of care for the resident based on the initial assessment of the resident’s immediate care needs conducted under section 43 that includes all of the information listed in subsection 62 (4) of the Act that is relevant to the resident’s immediate care needs.

47. (2) No later than 21 days after a resident commences residency in a retirement home, the licensee of the home shall develop a complete plan of care for the resident based on the full assessment of the resident’s care needs and preferences conducted under section 44 that takes into account all of the matters that must be considered in a full assessment.

Inspection Finding

The inspector reviewed a sample of resident care files and found that two residents did not have initial or full assessments completed within the required timeframe. Further, initial and complete plans of care for these two residents had not been completed. The inspector also found that four other residents had not been reassessed and their plans of care revised and approved by the resident or substitute decision maker. The Licensee did not complete assessments, plans of care and approvals as required.

Outcome

The Licensee has advised it has taken corrective action to achieve compliance. RHRA to confirm compliance by following up with the Licensee or by inspection.

2. The Licensee failed to comply with O. Reg. 166/11, s. 23; Behaviour management.

Specifically, the Licensee failed to comply with the following subsection(s):

23. (1) Every licensee of a retirement home shall develop and implement a written behaviour management strategy that includes,

Inspection Finding

During the inspection, resident care records were reviewed. The inspector found that one resident who exhibited behaviours did not have strategies in place to address the behaviours. The Licensee did not implement strategies and techniques as required for the resident's behaviours.

Outcome

The Licensee has advised it has taken corrective action to achieve compliance. RHRA to confirm compliance by following up with the Licensee or by inspection.

NOTICE

The Final Inspection Report is being provided to the Licensee, the Registrar of the Retirement Homes Regulatory Authority (the "RHRA") and the home's Residents' Council, if any.

Section 55 of the RHA requires that the Final Inspection Report be posted in the home in a conspicuous and easily accessible location. In addition, the Licensee must ensure that copies of every Final Inspection Report from the previous two (2) years are made available in the Home, in an easily accessible location.

The Registrar's copy of the Final Inspection Report, as it appears here, will be included on the RHRA Retirement Home Database available online at <http://www.rhra.ca/en/retirement-home-database>.
