| A responsive inspection, performed by an RHRA inspector, is a physical inspection of a licensed retirement home. A responsive inspection is conducted when RHRA receives information that the licensee may have failed to meet the standards of the Retirement Homes Act, 2010 or its regulations (the “RHA”). An inspection being conducted does not infer that an allegation is substantiated or that a contravention of the RHA has occurred. A licensee is required to report to RHRA if they suspect harm or risk of harm to a resident. During a responsive inspection, an RHRA inspector may observe the operations of the home, interview relevant individuals, review records and other documentation, and determine whether the licensee’s management and staff have followed mandatory policies and practices designed to protect the welfare of residents. Following a responsive inspection, the RHRA inspector prepares a draft inspection report which is sent to the licensee. The draft report may include instances where the licensee has failed to meet the standards of the RHA. If included, the licensee can respond to these instances and is strongly encouraged to inform RHRA of its plans to meet the standards of the RHA. Following the draft report, the RHRA inspector prepares this final inspection report, incorporating any response from the licensee with their plans to meet the standards of the RHA. The most recent final inspection report must be posted in the home in a visible and easily accessible location. All final inspection reports from the previous two years must also be made available in an easily accessible location in the home. The licensee must provide a copy of this report to the home’s Residents’ Council, if one exists. In addition to inspection reports, RHRA may provide information to a licensee to encourage improvements of their current practices. If there is a serious incident or the licensee repeatedly does not meet the required standards, RHRA may take further action. |

|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| During a responsive inspection, an inspector will focus primarily on the concern(s) which prompted the inspection and may take various actions to determine whether the licensee is compliant with the RHA in |

Concern #1: CON-5714-Neglect - Not receiving care service

RHRA Inspector Findings

A report was made to RHRA which included multiple allegations relating to the care and safety of residents. As part of the inspection in response to the report, the inspector reviewed records and interviewed some staff and residents. The inspector confirmed that the Licensee failed to ensure substitute decision maker information was included in the plan of care. In one instance, the inspector confirmed the Licensee failed to ensure an interdisciplinary care conference had been carried out as part of the development of a plan of care for a resident receiving skin and wound care. Further, inspector confirmed the Licensee failed to ensure some plans of care had the necessary approvals.

Outcome

The Licensee submitted a plan to achieve compliance by Mon August 7, 2023. RHRA to confirm compliance by following up with the Licensee or by inspection.

Concern #2: CON-5716-Building/maintenance

RHRA Inspector Findings

A report was made to RHRA regarding cleanliness and maintenance. As part of the inspection in response to the allegation, the inspector, reviewed policies and procedures, logs, and interviewed potential witnesses to the allegations. The inspector found some complaints made to the Licensee had not been fully addressed as required. The Licensee failed to ensure the policy for complaints had been fully implemented.

Outcome

The Licensee submitted a plan to achieve compliance by Fri July 28, 2023. RHRA to confirm compliance by following up with the Licensee or by inspection.

Additional Findings

During a responsive inspection, an inspector may observe areas of non-compliance that are not related to the concern(s) which prompted the inspection. In these cases, an inspector may cite the home for these contraventions at the time of this inspection. In addition, an inspector may follow-up on findings of non-compliance from previous inspections. Where the licensee is unable to demonstrate they have come into compliance or maintained compliance, an inspector may cite the home for these repeat contraventions at the time of this inspection.
