

Notice for Changes Form

The Retirement Homes Act, 2010 (Section 109 1 and 2) requires all retirement home licensees to notify the RHRA of changes to the information in the licence application (including any supporting documentation) or information on the Public Register.

Two months notice:

Licensees must notify the RHRA in writing, at least two months before any of the following changes occur (or as soon as practicable):

- Any person ceases to have a controlling interest in the licensee
- A person acquires a controlling interest in the licensee
- Any other event that would result in the termination of the licence

To notify the RHRA of a change to persons with a controlling interest, please complete and submit a Notice of Change of a Controlling Interest in a Licensee, available on the RHRA website.

Immediate notice:

Licensees must notify the RHRA in writing, as soon as possible after any of the following changes occur:

- A change to the name, address and/or contact information of the licensee
- A change to the primary contact person for the licensee and their contact information
- A change to the name/address of the retirement home
- A change in the directors or officers of the licensee
- A change in the directors or officers of a person with controlling interest in the licensee
- A change in the person employed or retained to manage the operations or most of the operations of the retirement home and their contact information
- A change to the number and/or location of automatic sprinklers in each resident's room and other areas of the retirement home
- An increase or decrease in the number of residents the retirement home can accommodate
- A change to the care services that the licensee makes available to the residents
- A material change in any other information that was provided to the Registrar in support of the licence application, for example:

- Disclosure of information in a corporate or individual personal history report, including information about licenses and registration certificates, and/or orders and offences

To notify the RHRA of a change under section 109(2) of the Act, please complete and submit the Notice of Change Form on Page 3 and on our website <http://rhra.ca/assets/en/pdf/Notice-of-Change-Form--2014-04-21.pdf>.
