- Develop clear and realistic education and action plans for licensees, with specific objectives within a specified schedule; and work effectively with operators to implement plans and monitor and assess progress toward meeting education and action plan goals
- Make compliance and enforcement recommendations to the Enforcement Manager as appropriate, based on analysis of findings on a case-by-case basis
- Provide and facilitate education at the retirement home and corporate chain level to ensure comprehension and alignment with compliance requirements
- Maintain a network of community partners to support retirement homes in achieving and sustaining compliance; and managing or avoiding crises situations
- Respond to homes in crises to ensure they are following RHRA requirements and provide support in accessing available stabilization resources
- Network effectively to acquire and develop effective community partner relationships and promote the role, aims, policies, and objectives of Retirement Homes Regulatory Authority to these community partner organizations

- Establish and maintain a partnership evaluation protocol that ensures that potential partner organizations are responsive, managed openly and effectively, and work with similar or complementary objectives
- Contribute to cross-functional projects, continuous improvement objectives and other organizational initiatives as required

Minimum Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or related undergraduate achievement or equivalent of education and experience in a related field. A nursing or IPAC background considered a strong asset.
- Crisis management experience
- Proven partnership building skills
- At least 3 years of related/transferrable work experience
- Demonstrated competency and achievement relating to legislative and regulatory requirements
- Knowledge of retirement homes sector, seniors' healthcare, and housing issues
- Proven experience with driving improvements in regulatory compliance

Required Competencies:

- Solid understanding or ability to quickly learn the Retirement Homes Act and regulation to effectively interpret requirements and communicate to partners
- Planning capabilities with demonstrated political acuity
- Excellent relationship management skills with an ability to engage, build trust, and collaborate with a variety of partners
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills with the ability to be precise and direct in communicating to diverse internal and external groups and to prepare high quality documents for internal and external review
- Able to work in a high stress situation while performing multiple tasks
- Effective attention to detail and a high degree of accuracy
- Strong work ethic and positive team attitude
- A well-defined sense of diplomacy, including solid negotiation, conflict resolution, and people management skills
- Demonstrated ability to develop and deliver training and associated documentation
- Maintain professional skills and refine expertise through appropriate developmental activities
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office (MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Bilingualism – French/English – considered an asset

Other Requirements: Satisfactory Professional and Criminal Reference Checks. It is anticipated that this position will work from RHRA's Toronto office, with some flexibility for remote working, once the office reopens, dependent on candidate and situation. Until that time, this position will be required to work from an established home office. Appropriate computer equipment will be provided.

Interested candidates should submit their cover letter and resume to careers@rhra.ca by September 13, 2021.
