
GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Reference Guide

To assist you with your application, please review the Application Guide before completing this form.

The guide contains helpful information about fees and identifies the supporting documents that must be submitted with this form. Definitions of terms used in this form are provided in the Application Guide.

While completing this form, you may:

1. View definitions by clicking words or phrases that appear in orange
2. Access other resources by clicking resource names that appear in blue

Required Information and Supporting Documents

All fields in this form are mandatory and relevant information must be provided.

Additional supporting documents required with this application are listed in this form. If required documents, such as an occupancy permit, approved fire safety plan, municipal licence or contractor's material test certificate, are not currently available, the Applicant can still submit the application and advise the RHRA of the anticipated date(s) of submission.

The RHRA may contact the Applicant to request more information or other supporting documents.

Application Processing

The standard licence application processing time is six to eight weeks following the submission of a complete application.

Expedited application fees can be paid in addition to the licence application fee if an Applicant requires priority consideration for an application to be processed within two or four weeks ahead of the standard licence application processing time. If an expedited service is requested, an expedited application fee must be submitted concurrently with the licence application fee.

Application Submission and Fees

Once completed, please save and email this Acquisition Licence Application Form and all supporting documents no later than six weeks prior to the occupancy date of the Retirement Home. Failure to submit this form by the deadline may result in a delay in issuing a licence.

Applications received less than six weeks prior to the occupancy date of the Retirement Home may be reviewed on an expedited basis and are subject to a fee.

The RHRA will not begin to process an application before receiving all application fees. Current licence application fees are set out in the RHRA's Fee Schedule. All fees are non-refundable.

RHRA Retirement Home Database

The RHRA requires information related to the management and operation of the home. This information will be posted on the RHRA's Retirement Home Database and must be kept current.

Retirement Home Database is a database of all Retirement Homes that includes:

- Retirement home's name and address
- Care services provided in each home
- Occupancy capacity of each home
- Summaries of each home's inspection reports
- Any orders imposed on licensed homes under the Act

RHRA must be notified regarding any information changes via email at licensing@rhra.ca or by completing a Notice of Change Form.
